I. Chairman's Report:

- Proposed budget change
- Thank you letters for Newtown interventions

II. New Business

- Summer Center registration (25 spots) filled up by 9:17am, 7th grade through 12th, 5 rotating alternate spots for field trips
- Youth Service Bureau day at the Capitol – MYSB brought 9 students, 125 students across the state discussed safety in schools, the students enjoyed the conversation
- Bench dedication possibly in June – waiting for the plaques to be made
- Community Conversation – very well received

III. Old Business

- Pasta Dinner - $1,000 raised
- Staff changes – John left, candidate receded due to economically not feasible, restructuring staffing
- Fees for After School Program, over $6,000 – request were made to the Finance Committee to have the money “returned” to Youth Center next year. Motion was made to postpone until June any further discussion by the Board about the ASP fee for 2013-2014 school year - 1st by Bob and 2nd by Tim.

IV. Good and Welfare

- Penny Drive check was presented to Social Service Director, Kathie Doherty-Peck by YAC members.
- Mohegan-Pequot Lions donated $300.00 to MYSB

V. Other Business

- JRB is very successful and is moving along as intended. The outcome has made a difference.
