1. Call to order- Joint Meeting with Policy Committee – 5:17 p.m.
2. Pledge of Allegiance
3. Discussion and Action regarding Policy 6146 – Graduation Requirements

-Handed out bulleted list of changes and answered questions. Items discussed included any potential impact on staffing and the value of the choices, options, and flexibility to the legislation allows. Heather reported that the MHS Parent Governance Council seemed excited about the concept. Committee members agreed that middle school courses that are identical to high school courses should earn high school credit. This currently applies to Algebra I, Geometry, and Spanish I. Sandra and Ashley spoke in favor of this. Ashley presented information on potential pathways that students might pursue as they select coursework over their four years at MHS
